VERO

Rock/Pop/Garage/Sixties/New German Wave

Véronique de la Chanson – 'Vero' for short – is known as songwriter and guitarist for her former bands (The Boonaraas – Düsseldorf, DollSquad – Melbourne, The Cherrypops – Essen, Orange Crush – Mülheim a. d. Ruhr). In November 2018 she released her first solo album Volken Zucker Himmel on Trier's Indie label Sumo Rex. The result is 14 catchy songs which are sure to make you sing along.

Charming German lyrics & musical pigeonholes

Vero's musical influences are coming from the sixties. She loves power pop, rock, garage and soul music. Also the influence of the New German Wave can't be denied. She grew up with this music in the 80s.

Vero loves good melodies, songs you can dance to and distorted guitars. She likes catchy garage pop songs and gets enthusiastic when the audience starts to sing the songs with her. In her Songs Vero tells stories which are enigmatic and funny, but always charming. As well as describing human feelings, the lyrics tell us about madness, desperation, perdition, vampires and the devil in person!

For fans of

Nena, Ideal, Lassie Singers, Die Ärzte, Superpunk, Stereo Total, Cindy Lauper, The Bangles, The B-52s, The Sonics and lots of other sixties garage bands
